

GUNDAROO FILM SOCIETY

FLICKERING ON AND OFF SINCE 1905

The Gundaroo Film Society is a non-profit organisation set up to encourage interest in all genres of film. In compliance with NSW Film Society regulations, the general conditions of the society are:

- No admission charges are paid for any individual screening.
- The first screening of the year is free and open to the public.
- Only members and guests of members will be admitted to subsequent screenings.
- Membership is available at any screening throughout the year.
- Membership is open to the public for the 2019 subscription period for $50 per adult, (10 screenings - 17 films).
- Members must be 18 years or over.
- Membership is non-transferable. You cannot pass your membership to a friend to use. However, you may bring along a guest. Each member may invite up to 3 guests in the 2019 subscription season. A non-member guest may only attend 2 screenings in a year after which they are encouraged to become a member.
- Screenings are held once a month in the Gundaroo Soldiers' Memorial Hall. The schedule of films is displayed on the website www.gundaroofilms.org and Facebook page Gundaroo Films.

The Gundaroo Film Society is a sub-committee of the Gundaroo Soldiers' Memorial Hall Committee Inc, members of the Film Society are automatically members of the Gundaroo Hall.
